East Midlands #TrustLeaders' Network 2019/20

Who leads the network?

The network is delivered by Forum Strategy in partnership with Inspiring Leaders. Each session is hosted by an Inspiring Leaders Director (CEO of a high-performing Multi-Academy Trust) and chaired by Michael Pain, CEO of Forum Strategy and author of 'Being The CEO'. Michael is also lead facilitator of the 'Being The CEO' programme and is a leading voice nationally on academy trust development, coaching a number of CEOs across the country.

Inspiring Leaders is a not for profit partnership of outstanding Teaching Schools (primary and secondary) and established Multi-Academy Trusts spread across the East Midlands and Yorkshire and Humber with a strong track record for providing quality leadership development. We passionately believe that great school leadership has the power to transform children's lives and we are therefore committed to providing the best possible learning opportunities to all of our participants.

The East Midlands #TrustLeaders Network returns in 2019/20 for the fourth consecutive year. The network has developed a strong reputation amongst Trust CEOs, trustees and others for its cross-sector thinking, peer to peer learning, and cutting-edge materials and resources. The network is part of a wider national network of trust CEOs and leaders led by Forum Strategy.

About the network

This year's network includes two places at the National #TrustLeaders conference on 26th September in Nottingham, as well as three regional networking events throughout the year. Membership also includes an individual subscription to Forum Strategy's strategy and intelligence briefings for CEOs, the Forum Strategy funding and grants briefings, and the opportunity to access Forum's regular policy roundtables.

The East Midlands network is one of six regional #TrustLeaders networks across the country. The network is committed to generating high quality cross-sector and peer to peer learning, with previous contributors including the College of Policing, NHS Improvement, the British Franchise Association, acclaimed business leaders, and CEOs from the NHS and charity sectors.
