

National #TrustLeaders' Conference 2019

Serving a generation: Academy Trusts at the heart of their communities

26th September 2019, at Trent Vineyard, Nottingham from 9.15am-3.15pm

Forum Strategy's National #TrustLeaders Conference returns for a second year, bringing together CEOs, leaders and trustees from across our five regional networks.

In 2018, 98% of delegates rated our national conference as excellent or good (75% as excellent), as we welcomed leaders from the wider public sector, business and academy trusts to provide expert insights into improvement at scale.

In 2019, our conference will focus on the relationships that trusts must forge with their communities, ensuring they are truly responding to the needs and aspirations of this generation of children and young people in a turbulent world. We will ask: What role do academy trusts play in their communities? How can trusts generate wider social and professional capital in service to pupils? How do trusts ensure they are accountable to their communities as well as to government?

Our contributors include:

Frank Norris
Director of the Co-op Academies Trust (CEO)

Pip Wilkins
Chief Executive of the British Franchise Association

Saeed Atcha MBE
Social Mobility Commissioner and Charity CEO

Michael Pain
CEO of Forum Strategy and author of 'Being The CEO'

Marg Randles OBE
Co-Founder and Chief Academic Officer of Busy Bees Nurseries

Yvonne Smillie
Deputy Chief Academic Officer, Busy Bees Nurseries

Nick Chambers
CEO of the charity, Education and Employers

Facilitated by Jane Creasy

Forum Strategy Associate and leading educationalist, working across the public, private and third sectors on leadership, innovation and improvement.

Forum Strategy working in partnership with

