

South Midlands & London: #TrustLeaders Network 2019/20

The South Midlands & London #TrustLeaders Network enters its second year in 2019/20, and is developing a strong reputation amongst trust CEOs, trustees and others for its cross-sector thinking, peer to peer learning, and cutting-edge materials and resources.

What's involved?

The #TrustLeaders Network brings together leading thinkers, experts, and a wide range of practitioners across sectors, to ensure your high-quality, ongoing professional development as a CEO. Previous contributors include NHS Improvement, The British Franchise Association, leading CEOs from across sectors, and others.

This year's network will provide you with an extensive range of development and networking opportunities, as well as the chance to stay ahead of and inform policy development through our regular roundtable events.

The South Midlands & London #TrustLeaders network is one of six regional #TrustLeaders networks led by Forum Strategy nationwide. The network is led by Michael Pain, CEO of Forum Strategy, and author of the book 'Being the CEO'.

This year's network will focus on:

- The growing importance of building social and professional capital – how CEOs successfully prioritise and build valuable strategic partnerships; and
- The role of CEOs in leading sustainable and successful digital transformation – securing value, organisational efficiency and preparing pupils for the future; and
- Leading a 'talent-powered' organisation:
The CEO's role in becoming an employer of choice

New contributors will include: author of 'The Social CEO', Damian Corbet; community organiser and Emeritus Director of Citizens UK, Neil Jameson CBE; founder of the Executive and Personal Assistants Association, Victoria Wratten; and many others.

Session 1: 15th November 2019 (am)    Session 3: 15th May 2020 (am)
Session 2: 7th February 2020 (am)    Session 4: 24th September 2020, Nottingham*

Places are very limited. The deadline for booking is: 15th October 2019.
